

Newsletter, April 2015

Welcome

Welcome to the first installment of the American Association of Professional Technical Analysts Newsletter. One of the purposes of the newsletter is keep members up-to-date with the happenings of the organization. Another is to provide an outlet for news regarding AAPTA members. Have you written a book? Are you speaking at a conference or conducting an online seminar? Do you have any other announcements that you would like to communicate to AAPTA members? Please email tracy.knudsen@comcast.net with the details and the information will be included in the next installment of the newsletter.

AAPTA Annual Conference Nashville, TN April 17-18, 2015

AAPTA's Annual Conference and Brainstorm Session in Nashville, TN was a great success. Each session was highly informative, well-presented and generated thought-provoking discussion.

Presentations were given by Dave Landry, Ian McAvity, Walter Murphy, Larry McMillan, Dick Fruth, Tracy Knudsen and Greg Adams. Attendees and guests also enjoyed dinner at The Row Kitchen & Pub on Thursday evening and at Mafiaoza's Pizzeria on Friday evening.

Inside This Issue

Welcome/Request for Newsletter Contributions	1
Annual Conference	1
John Brooks Memorial Library	2
Announcements	2

Nashville offered endless entertainment choices and great shopping for spouses as well as for attendees.

Preliminary discussions are considering Jupiter, Florida as the location of the next AAPTA Conference in March 2016. Please mark your calendars.

The John Brooks Memorial Library

Conference attendee, Tracy Knudsen, shared photographs of the John Brooks Memorial Library that has been established in the offices of Lowry Research Corp. in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida.

The above is just a small sample of the material that has been collected for the John Brooks Memorial Library. For more information and/or to make a contribution, please contact: Tracy Knudsen at: tracy.knudsen@comcast.net

Announcements

To be included in the next newsletter